Revision Competition

#Revise for a Prize

Five lucky winners that use SAM Learning Revision will each win a £50 One4all gift card (spend with over 170 brands nationwide or online). To enter the prize draw just login and complete a minimum of 3 revision activities a week using the 'Go!' Or 'Next' buttons.

If you complete 3 revision activities in one of these weeks your name will be entered into the draw that week. We will draw a random name at the end of each week:

13th April – 19th April
20th April – 26th April
27th April – 3rd May
4th May – 10th May
11th May – 17th May

Q14: Which is the best explanation for why scientists found it difficult to decide how Pluto should be classified?

- It is too cold for anything to live there
- Its atmosphere is like Titan's but it orbits the sun
- There is evidence for and against Pluto being a planet
- It is too far away for us to see it properly
